De Got Mis.

April 2023

PHONE CALL SPOOFING SCAMS

Phone call spoofing scams are becoming increasingly common and can be difficult to detect. In these scams, the caller ID is manipulated to make it appear as though the call is coming from a trusted source, such as a bank or government agency. The scammers will then try to trick the victim into providing sensitive information, such as their social security number. Click the link to learn more about spoofing call scams.

LET'S GET SOCIAL!

Help Save the Planet One Statement at a Time!

Enrolling in e-statements is not only a smart move for your personal convenience and financial security, but it's also a great way to celebrate Earth Day and do your part for the environment. Earth Day, celebrated annually on April 22nd, is a global event that promotes environmental awareness and encourages individuals and organizations to take action to protect the planet.

LEARN MORE

Want Crazy Fast Service?

Schedule your next appointment online!

Schedule Appointment

Watch the Webinar

NAVIGATING AUTO BUYING

Buying (and financing) a car can be one of the biggest financial decisions you can make. Although most people go years between vehicle purchases, it's not always a fun process. No one wants to pay too much for a car. There are many things to be aware of to ensure you are getting a good deal. Join GreenPath for an informative webinar "Navigating Auto Buying" for tools to take some of the anxiety out of the car buying process.

A GUIDE TO SUCCESSFUL HOMEOWNERSHIP

Watch the Webinar

Are you excited to buy and move into your first home? Do you want to remove as much stress and frustration as possible? GreenPath is here to help. Join HUD certified housing counselors to learn about the steps to become a homeowner and how to maintain the home once you have a place that's all your own.

Watch the Webinar

5 STRATEGIES TO SURVIVE INFLATION IN 2023

From getting gas to simple trips to the supermarket, prices are soaring, which is causing most of us some type of financial stress. This webinar will give five solid tips on how to fight inflation, or, at the very least, take away some of its sting.

